Craig Amoth, President and CEO of Behavioral Health Services North, noted, "Our Board's capacity to serve our Agency and our community has been expanded again. We are in a growth phase of our governance and are pleased to add Kirsten, Alexa, Matt and Joseph to our team."

Matt Nolan is Chief Operating Officer of the Elizabethtown Community Hospital and lives in Peru with his family. His previous experience was with Bristol-Myers Squibb and Wyeth Pharmaceuticals.

Alexa King works for Cornell Cooperative Extension as a Team Coordinator for 4-H Youth Development and Nutrition, specifically the Eat Smart New York program. Receiving her MBA from Penn State, King is a strong leader in strategic planning and change management.

Kirsten Pope serves as the Director of Internal Audit, Corporate Compliance Officer, at CVPH Medical Center having served as its Internal Auditor prior. She also serves on the Board of Directors for The Strand.

Joseph Wawrzynski is the Administrative Director of Laboratory Services at CVPH and held a similar position at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia. His experience with LEAN and Six Sigma strategies will guide the Board as it focuses on a new Strategic Plan in the coming year.
